Events in the heart of London

GRAY'S INN

Welcome to Gray's Inn

With over 600 years of history, Gray's Inn is one of London's hidden treasures. Tucked away in the heart of Central London, moments from Chancery Lane and the City, it offers a unique setting for corporate events, private celebrations and special occasions.

One of the four Inns of Court, Gray's Inn combines centuries of tradition with a distinctive collection of event spaces.

From the Elizabethan Hall, ideal for dinners, awards and festive celebrations, to the secluded gardens of the Walks, home to our summer marquee in June and July, each space offers something different.

A collection of versatile meeting rooms completes the offering, combining historic character with modern facilities for meetings, conferences and corporate gatherings.

"I wanted to write to thank you for looking after us so well on Monday. It was a great success and everything ran very smoothy!"

The Hall

Located on the first floor of the Domus Building, the Hall at Gray's Inn is a distinctive and versatile Elizabethan space with timeless character.

Largely unchanged since the time of Queen Elizabeth I, its original features include heraldic shields, historic paintings, stained-glass windows dating back to 1462, and the Great Screen from the early 1570s.

The Hall provides an elegant setting for evening receptions, private dining and dinners.
