THE Walks

One of the largest private gardens in London...

Gray's Inn gardens are known as The Walks and were originally laid out in 1608 by the then Treasurer, Sir Francis Bacon, whose statue can be seen in the South Square.

The Walks remain among the largest private gardens in London: five acres of perfectly maintained park entered through a pair of impressive iron gates.

The gardens provide a peaceful oasis amidst the busy streets of Central London and are available throughout the year for drinks receptions and a picturesque spot for your wedding photos.

During June and July The Walks are equipped with a luxury marquee structure, perfect for a summer wedding reception and entertaining guests in beautiful surroundings.
